THE MORRISTOWN GAZETTE.

By JOHN E. HELMS.

MORRISTOWN, TENN., WEDNESDAY, JULY 18, 1877.

VOL. 11 .-- NO. 19.

New Advertisements.

WM. G. TAYLOR, ATTORNEY AT LAW

Morristown, Tenn., WILL practice in the Courts of Hamblen, and the adjoining counties. apr15 n6-1y.

WILL, S. DICKSON,

Attorney at Law,

MORRIS . LWN, TENN. WILL Practice, a the Courts of upper East Tennessee, Prompt and special attention iven mail, for Chills and Fever."

W. D. GAMMON,

Attorney - at - Law, Morristown, Tenn. Will practice in Hamblen and adjoining coun-

Prompt attention given to collections.

A. H. PETTIBONE Attorney at Law,

GREENEVILLE, TENN. Will practice in the courts of the First Judicial Circuit and the Supreme Court at Knoxville. Will also give prompt attention to the collection of al kinds of claims and debts.

THE CENTRAL HOUSE. (A new Hotel-just opened.)

Gay Street, - - Knoxville, Tenn.

J. C. FLANDERS, Proprietor.

THE CENTRAL HOUSE,

IS SITUATED A FEW STEPS Banks, Wholesale and Retail Stores, and Market Beautiful front yard, with luxuriant shade trees.
Rooms and Table, equal to the best in the city, to say the least June 3, "75.

Formerly ROGERSVILLE HOUSE, South, west cal. Public Square,

ROGERSVILLE, TENNESSEE.

Sam P. Powel, Pro.

Porter always in attendance at trains to carry baggage to the House free of charge.

PRIVATE BOARDING BY THE DAY OR WEEK AT THE GRIGSBY HOUSE.

RUTLEDGE, TENN.

JOSEPH GRIGSBY. - - - Progretor

THIS HOUSE IS SITUATED IN a quiet country town, and convenient to Min-eral Waters of aimost any grade or 11sd, with good dirt roads to and from the same. Board can be nad at this House at $1 50 per day. *4 00 per week, or $15 00 per month during the weing Season.

Apply to JOSEPH GRIGS Proprietor.

TONSORIAL.

By Mack Fulton, At the Virginia House,

MORRISTOWN, - - - TENN shave, hair-cut, hair-dress, clean sham-

IN I solicit the public patronage, and would say that I can give satisfac-- tion either in a clean, neat poo, or an elegant whisker or moustache dye. Terms moderate.

WALKER & SON, THE OLD, RELIABLE AND "PERMANENT Barbers,

HAVE removed their shop from the old stand on Henry street to the house in the "Y," near the depot, where they will be pleased to see and wait upon all of his old customers, and as many new ones as may feel inclined to patronize him,

FRED. A. SHOTWELL, Millinery Establishment. SURGEON DENTIST:

Rogersville, -- Tenn. -0-Offers his professional services to the citizens of the village and surrounding country, and assures those who layor him with their patronage, that he will make it his pleasure to give perfect satisfaction. Terms, cash. Ladies prefering it will be swaited upon at their homes, without extra charge. sept, 27, 1876-v 10 n 30 tf.

MORRISTO WN

Female High School.

REV. T. P SUMMERS, R. A. LOWRY, (Davidson College), Associate Principals. C. E. DILLWORTH, Principal Music Dep't. The next Session con Board from $2 50 to $3 00 per week. Tuition from $10 to $20 per term of 29 weeks. Address the Principals, Morristown, Tenn.

ROGERSVILLE

TEMALE COLLEGE

HIE NEXT SESSION WILL begin Monday, September 4th. The location, the buildings, the thoroughness in the mode of in-struction, and the care taken of students, make it se of the most desirable seats of learning in the For circulars or particulars, address,

REV. A. W. WILSON, PRESIDENT july 12-76 tf.

DENTISTRY.

THOS. J. SPECK, D. D. S.

OFFICES: Rogersville, Tenn., from 1st to 15th of each month

TERMS-Cash or its equivalen Valuable Farm for Sale

ath day of said mouth, we will move the Court for judgement against you in our favor for the amount we paid for you as your sureties in the case of B. Ansmus vs William Hayse et. al. It is therefore ordered by us that this notice be published in the Moznisrows Gazerre for four successive weeks, it being a weekly paper published in Morristown, Tennessee. This June 5, 1 77.

R. G. YOAKUM,
W. H. BARNARD. TIWO MILES NORTH OF MORristown, 100 acres more-or-less, well watered and laying well; good dwelling, splendid young or hard, barns crib, &c. I will sell all of my household goods, including piano, farming tools, mules, hogs and cattle, &c., &c. at exceedingly low figures.

JOHN PRYDE, Morristown, Tenn. pr18-3m

MARK THESE FACTS

The Testimony of the Whole World. HOLLOWAY'S PILLS, "I had no appetite; Holloway's Pills give me a

"I gave one of your Pills to my babe for cholers "I gave one of your Fills to my babe for cholera morbus. The dear little thing got well in a day."

"My nauses of a morning is now cured."

"Your box of Holloway's Cintment cured me of noise in the head. I rubbed some of your Cintment behind the ears, and the noise has left."

"Send me two boxes; I want one for a poor family." "I enclose a dollar; your price is 25 cents, bu the medicine to me is worth a dollar." "Send me five boxes of your Fills."
"Let me have three boxes of your Pills by return

"Dr. Holloway has cured my headache that was

I have over 200 such testimonials as these, but wand of space compels me to conclude. For Cutaneous Disorders penetrates with the most searching effects to the HOLLOWAY'S PILLS Invariably cure the following diseases Disorder of the Kidneys.

late relief when all other means have failed

For Stomachs Out of Order.

No medicine will so effectually improve the tone of the atomach as those Pills; they removed all acid-ty occasioned either by intemperance or improper ealthy action; they are wonderful officacious in ascs of spasm—in fact they never fail in curing ill desorders of the liver and stomach. HOLLOWAY'S PILLS are the best known in the HOLLOWAY'S PILLS are the best known in the world for the following diseases: Argue, Asthma, Billous Complaints, Blotches on the skin, Bowels, Consumption, Debility, Dropsy, Dysentery, Erysiplas, Female Irregularities, Fever, of all kinds, Fits, Gout Headache, Indigestion, Inflamation, Jaundice, Liver Complaints, Lumbago, Piles, Bheumatism, Retention of urine, Scrofula of King's Euil, Sore Throats; Stone and Gravel, Tic-Dououreux, Tumors, Ulcers, Worms of all kindes Weak ness from any cause, etc.

IMPORTANT CAUTION.

None are genuine unless the signature of a poor, as agent for the United States surrounds each box of Pills, and Ointment, A handsome reward will be given to any one rendering such information as may lead to the detection of any parformation as may lead to the detection of any parformation as may lead to the detection of any parformation. ing the same, knowing them to be spurious.
Sold the manufactory of Professor Holloway & Co., New York, and by all respectable drug-There is considerable saving by taking the lar ger sizes.

N. B.—Directions for the guidance of patients in every disorder are affixed to each box. Office, 112 Liberty Street, New York.

Nov, 29-76, 1m,

MILLINER,

Millinery Goods, No. 34 Temple Block,

Market Square,

PHOTOGRAPH -AND-

Cases and Frames always on hand. Now is the time to secure your LIKENESS—don't put it off-time to secure your LIKENESS—don't put it off—the old folks won't get any younger, and may not get much older. The young folks get no prettier!

By age the sweethearts need no suggestion from me—no one knows but that this is their last opportunity ever to SIT FOR A PICTURE again!
Then don't put it off. The quality is good, and no one is expected to pay for his Picture unless it IS GOOD. Particular aftention paid to COPYING old Pictures. Instructions given in the Art, and apparatuses furnished at moderate charges. I would be pleased to have all call and examine whether wanting Pictures or not.

THOMAS B. BAYLESS.

MORRISTOWN

MRS. T. C. CAIN,

At the old stand of Mas. P. A. FLYNN, Keeps constantly on hand the LATEST and m

Millinery, & Straw Goods,

Bonnet Trimming & Velvet Ribbons,

Bonnet Silks, Satins and Velvets,

Blonds Netts, Crapes, Ruches,

Flowers, Feathers,

Ornaments, &c.

BONNES AND HATS

TRIMMED and UNTRIMMED.

Wilson, Burns & Co.,

WHOLESALE

Grocers and Commission Merchants

30 South Howard Street, corner of Lombard,

BALTIMORE.

MOTION.

R. G. Yoakum and W. H. Barnard vs. Wm. Hayse

je 1377-4w, due 60c

R. WILLIAM HAYSE: SIR-

Give her a call and satisfy yourself,

FINE ART GALLERY Over McCRABY & HARRISON'S. Being convinced that the people of this section of country are desirous of obtaining GOOD PIC-FURES, and feeling assured that I will receive a TURES, and feeling assured that I will receive a liberal support, I take pleasure in informing the people generally that I am Prepared to make PHO-TOGRAPHS, GEMS, AMBROTYPES and FERO-TYPES of Life-size. Also, I am prepared to make Photographs and other pictures of Life-size, copied from old ones. DAGUERRECOTYPES or other kind of Pictures and Photographs made and colored in India Ink, Crayon or Water Colors. Picture Cause and Propose always on hand. Now is the trouble.

AFTER A DROUTH.

vailed during the month of May, 1877, in which month no rain fell: The thirsty Earth has drank the rain,

The clouds, like rivers raised on high Pour out at God's command, Their watering blessings from the sky,

To cheer the thirsty land. Oh! Lord send moisture to the fields, Permit the corn to spring ; Make valleys rich and pastures yield

And the poor plowman sing. The hardened clods please melt with rain And grant a bounteous crop :

And make the ground look green again And raise the laborer's hope.

All doubtful ones should see The Lord is good and just ; And such doubtful ones should flee And make His name their trust.

-The Skin Game. Woods, of Calloway county Mis- his own and the right column. ness, and at the time of Sam's call a regarded as lost." WE Keep constantly on hand a large and well assorted stock of Groceries, suitable for the Southern and Western trade. We solicit consignments of Country Produce, such as Cotton, Feathers, Ginseng Beeswax, Wool, Dried Fruit, Fur Skins, etc. Our facilities for doing business are such as to warrant quick sales and prompt returns

" Got that log done?" "Y-y-yes, o-boss, all d-d-done." " Well, how much is it? "F-f-four d-d-dollars an' a half."

d-d-dead."

The Morristown Gazette. Forth !"

WEDNESDAY, JULY 18, 1872. Rev. W. C. Johnson, editor of the Memphis Western Methodist, and an alumnus of East Tennessee University, was made a D. D. by Emory and Henry College at its recent commencement occasion.

in touching terms to the "late William Gannaway Brewlow, editor of the Wigh, of Knaville, Tennessee."

The proprietor of the White Sulphur Springs has written to one of his summer guests, now in Washingweek at White Sulphur.

Says an exchange: "never go I'm alive, and I'm glal of it!

having been confined by ill health in | Forth with no particular sect, but that in George Washington, I mene—a cros. agreed to, and M. Tourville and his steady enough he could make a clock, nearly as possible indicated by Holy handfull of men and whippin' them path. Writ, and was ready to go whenever Brytish and there Mermadens at The carriage arrived at Trafoi midst of life we are in death. How to Kill a Town. never fails to accomplish its work: 1st. Put up no more buildings than you are obliged to occupy yourself.

your own mechanics and manufac- Grealey with his noble face beemin' had been done, the hostess suggest-the cause of religion or education, your work by killing your local news- the land of the frea and the home of place where his wife had fallen saw Tom. advertise, so that persons at a dis- Grant-and, yes, my contrymen, the carriage reached that spot Zolitance will know not that any business is being done in your own town, or they may want to come and settle among you, or buy something from did I have to begin life with? Who some twenty minutes more, when you and that would put you to extra | could a thawt to see me startin' out | Tourville said his wife must be low-

MARSHALL'S FERRY, June, 1877.

To the Editor of the Morristown Gazette Now gaps and thirsts to drink again, his quick, snappy way, asked:

To the Editor of the Morristown Gazette: Hurrah for G. Washington! Hurrah for Tilden and Haves! Hurrah for the Returning Boarde Hurralt for Every Body!

What is there like Patriotism, feller citizuns? Nothin', not even ginger-bread can he compeared to it! I'm glad I'm alive-I'm glad you're alive-I'm glad ever-Body is The Independence Belge alludes alive! Why am I glad I'm alive? If I wuzzent alive could I know that thys wuz the greatest contry under

In all diseases affecting these organs, whether into a store where you are not wan- How my harte swells when I think patient, ordered a light carriage for ty days. Wharton has his office with me." they secrete too much or too little water; or whether they be afflicted with stone or gravel, or with the next morning to convey him to lis knowledge may have its value.

The next morning to convey him to lis knowledge may have its value. The next morning to convey him to lis knowledge may have its value. The next morning to convey him to lis knowledge may have its value. The next morning to convey him to lis knowledge may have its value. The next morning to convey him to lis knowledge may have its value. The next morning to convey him to list knowledge may have its value. The next morning to convey him to list knowledge may have its value. The next morning to convey him to list knowledge may have its value. The next morning to convey him to list knowledge may have its value. The next morning to convey him to list knowledge may have its value. The next morning to convey him to list knowledge may have its value. The next morning to convey him to list knowledge may have its value. The next morning to convey him to list knowledge may have its value. The next morning to convey him to list knowledge may have its value. The next morning to convey him to list knowledge may have its value. The next morning to convey him to list knowledge may have its value. The next morning to convey him to list knowledge may have its value. The next morning to convey him to list knowledge may have its value. The next morning to convey him to list knowledge may have its value. The next morning to convey him to list knowledge may have its value. The next morning to convey him to list knowledge may have its value. cording to the printed directions, and the Ointment should be well rubbed into the small of the back at bed time. This treatment will give almost your home paper. It is wrong for proude of! Yes, my frends, as I The carriage started at 9 A. M., and you through an advertisement in that haint got no autcestors to be ing that the maid was not to go. you to intrude upon his privacy; so was a sayin' my Anteestors-I see at half past 11 reached Trafoi. At there grateness a shinin' in the blue half past 12 they started again from ski-I here it resoundin' in the fyre. Trafoi, arrived at 2 P. M. on the Lawson Cline, a highly respected crakers, and most of all in the sole. Frazenshohe, where the gentleman citizen of Cherokee county, N. C., thrillin ski-racketts; the mountings took some wine, and then they went died recently of apoplexy, while on looks blewer-the grass is grener, on to Ferinashohe, the highest point right, but these being wrong, the a visit to Mr. Hunsucker, near Mur- the chickens crous fierster, and all of the road. They had searcely phy. Deceased was 64 years of age, natur has put on her Sundy close in completed half of the road when, at and remarkably preserved, never honur of this grate and glorus the so-called Lasetta, Tourville said seemin' to say, "Go West Young look at ME!

pocket hankerchief, that I would men got down, but he remained in ever get to be the man I am? A the carriage. A straw hat and vest The following lines were written Justice of the Peece-respected by were found four metres under the on the subject of the drouth that pre- awl, and hopin' next year to run for road, with a stone upon them. The Hy Sherif! What is Grate Britan? hat was full of blood on the inside. What is China? What is anywhere The men took it to the carriage, and compeared to such a land as ours, Tourville, without touching it, resalute the passer by. What other ted with blood was found, and this, land has got so menny newspapers too, was taken up to the carriage land has got a Forth of July? None! My contrymen! None! MOSSY CREEK.

July 4, 1877.

RUSSO-TURKISH WAR.

St. Petersburg dispatches deny that the siege of Kars has been rais- ed the news to Tourville, who was ed. The government publishes a walking up and down. His answer dispatch from the Russian camp be- was, "Dead, indeed!" and he offerscribing a successful attack on a to the men to bring up the body, Turkish battery; Mukhtar Pasha, To this, however, the Custom officer however, has sent a long series of objected, and ordered all the things dispatches to Constantinople, de- to be left on the spot. Tourville glass." Away back in 1864, Mr. John scribing the victorious advance of wanted to go back to Spondinig, un-souri, went out to try his fortunes In the last dispatch, dated Ali- left there and could speak no Ger- button left. "I know it wont!" in Montana, taking with him old zoupie, July 3, he says: "We passed man; but he was detained and And with this he went out into Sam, one of the darkies who had the day in making reconnoisances. searched. He was asked to take the chill air of midnight. When he grown up on the home place. Sam This afternoon the Russians aban- down his gloves. There was blood had got away from the shadow of had for years, even before he was doned Banliam, lying to the south of on the first and middle fingers, and the tavern, he stopped and looked up free, had pretty much his own way, Kars across Aidos Heights. They when asked for an explanation he and was well known as a sensible were pursued by our cavalry. The said it was from the stones. and witty feilow. In Montana he Russian left wing is almost anpicked up odd jobs, and was in con- nihilated and fleeing before the stant requisition. He was one day Turkish right with such precipitan. UNWELCOME NEWS FOR employed by a Yankee carpenter to cy that they buried or concealed hew a log for him, and, having com- their armory and destroyed or abanpleted the job, went to the "boss" doned immense quantities of bag. J. Madison Wells Announcing for pay, expecting to charge about gage and provisions. The road 75 cents. Meantime the carpenter from Hilitz to Kaeli is covered with had made a rough coffin for a poor dead. Intercepted Russian letters fellow who had died in the wilder. show that the garrison of Bayazid is Cabinet meeting was unpleasantly have the kernel and Ellen the husk!

friend of the deceased was paying Advices from a Turkish source dison Wells to Mr. Hayes informing for the coffin, the amount being $60. state that the Russian left wing is him in detail of the indictments Turning to Sam, the carpenter in retreating in disorder in the direction found against him and Anderson on of Bayazid. Mukhtar and Moussa the 28th of June, and asking for Pashas are within twelve miles of help in his extremity. No one ap-Kars. Three battations of Imperial pears to have had any very perti-"Gracious! Why, you'd skin a Zewir telegraphs that in the battle of the President made possible. It ward. on the 29th ult. the Russians retired is the current belief of the Cabinet On the Y-y-yes, boss, but dat's not as after enormous losses. The Turks that Nicholls will interfere to preb b-bad as skin him after he's buried 1,000 Russians. The Turk- vent serious results, and that after ish loss was below 500.

hostilities on the part of Servis and much from men like Wells and An- good and strong."

ube.

TRAGEDY IN THE ALPS.

The Trial of a Wealthy Englishman for Alleged Murder of His Wife. From the London Times. VIENNA, June 19,-Yesterday af- ministration of State justice. These come back to the old place, asking gaining support for his Southern the shinin sun? If I wuzzent alive ternoon the Court resumed the sit- indictments may make necessary the forgiveness for the past, and hoping policy, could have induced him to could I fele my buzzum swell with ting. The prisoner spoke, in turn, testimony of Jack Wharton, and may to do better in the future." pryde at belu borned a frea Amer- French, Italian, and English, and throw light on his appointment as "Tom!" cried the manufacturer, icun citizun? Could I clame George gave his version of the affair with Marshal. He, it may be remember- starting forward and grasping his Washington for my father, and great volubility and energy. The ed, held the Maddox letters in which hand, " are you in earnest? Is it cause it has lost all virtue as a stanton, that President Haves some Hayes and Wheeler for my Elder indictment states that on the 15th Wells outlined his guilty plan. He really the old Tom?" time since engaged a cottage at his brother? Could I look at them stairs of July. 1876, a Mr. De Tourville, was knowing of their contents, and "It's what is left of him, sir, and place, and arranged to occupy it for and stripes a flotein' to the zeffers from London, came with his wife by the same knowledge was knowing we will have him whole and strong inherent and unavoidable weakness a visit about the 27th of this month, and sing "Hale Columbya" with and her maid to Spondinig, where of the conspiracy fast maturing to soon if you will only set him at of his present position, the effect of The President will remain about one a happie harte? How could I do the road to the Stelvio Pass branch- put the Presidency up at auction, work." enny of them things, feller citizuns, es off from the main road in the vi- and knock it down to the highest and me ded? No, my contry men, cinity of Vintsoga. The gentleman, bidder, part payment in cash, and you too. There is an engine to be party, so far as possible, by yielding who seemed very excited and im- the rest in offices on credit for nine- set up and tested to-day. Come it was too late to go up, and that his life. The Ashville Pioneer says: Look at George Washington! they wanted to return. At 41 they He was conversing freely and jovi- who would a thawt that to see him were back again at Franzenshohe. ally with Mrs. H. and a lady a few quietly cuttin' his father cherrie trea Here he gave orders to feed the moments before his death, when the that he ware destyned to be the horses, while he and his wife went latter asked him if he ever gave his gratest man that ever lived, exceptin on. The coachman objected, as he soul's future wellfare any though. one or too, which bein present I wont had left his oats at Trafoi, and pro-He replied that he was identified mention no names. Look at him- posed to return there. This was living he walked in the direction as sin the Potomuck and with a luttle wife went on foot on the Serpentine the messenger of death beckoned. Bull Run. Yes, and they did run too half past 4. An hour afterward As he finished, his head fell upon until the last man of 'em had jumped Tourville was observed walking at his bosom, blood gushed from his into the Pacific ishun. Think of all his usual pace, not at all heated, pany. nostrils; with a gasp and a few sud- the trouble he must have had with and holding a parasol without a handen contractions of his muscles, he the Injuns bush-whakin' his men, and | dle in his hand. He said he felt hot, fell from his chair a corpse. The him all the tyme half run mad-pore and asked for a glass of wine. Angel had beckoned. Verily in the man!-with tryin' to keep the carpet. When asked where his wife was, he baggers outen the South. Yes, said, without any sign of anxiety or feller contrymen, "butiful and brite sorrow, that she had fallen and badhe stood," as the poet has sed about . ly hurt herself, pointing to his tem-We clip from an exchange the fol- him, calm and serean sterin' the old ples. In reply to a question from lowing admirable receipt, which if Ship of Stait threw the fierce tem. the coachman. Tourville told him to closely followed for, say two years. pests and ragin' billers-yes, the take two or three men and look for ragin' billers of civel-my contrymen Madame Tourville, and that he hystory fales to tell just exac ly would follow. His account to the what it wuz he stered her threw, but maid was that while his wife was ad-2nd. If you should have an empty you may be shore it was somethin' miring the scenery a stone gave building to rent demand three times treemendious! George Washington way and that she rolled down. To first in peece, first in war, and first the hostess, again, he asserted that 3rd. Look sour at every new com- in the hartes of the colored man." his wife, who was always self-willed, er and give the cold shoulder to He sed "let us have peece," and my would go on foot, and that she every mechanic who desires to come frends we will have peece if we have knocked her foot against a stone to kill every man in the Strait to get | and fell down. Although from the 4th. Go abroad for your goods and it. But let us come down to more indifference shown by Tourville all warers, by no means purchase from moderate times. Look at Horace were of opinion that no great harm tures even at the same prices or down from the sculpturous marble, ed that the carriage should still be panions left him. taken, and it was ordered. Inspec-5th. Don't contribute one cent to Man." Look at Josh Billin's with tor Zollner and two other men from his Almawax-look at the Mossy Trafoi got in with Tourville, who came into the bar-room to see what Finally, put a thorough finish on Creek Independent that waives over mentioned that above and below the paper, by refusing to subscribe or the braive-look at Missus Hiram down there were red stones. When ner drew the attention of Tourville I stand a livin' momemental of the to the red stones, but received no glory of this frea republick! What answer. The carriage went on for from the peternal rufe with nothin' er down. The carriage returned. but one sute of close and the Decler. and on its arriving at the red stones ation of Independance tide up in a Tourville said, "Here it is." The where the eegle flaps its snowy plied indifferently that it was his pinyuns, and the stairs and stripes wife's; near by a handkerchief spot- gloated over the misery of the wo--so menny frea churches-sich a and acknowledged as Mrs. Tour-President? Yes, and what other ville's. Following the traces of patient stamp of the foot. blood, the men found a cuff and necktie, likewise spotted with blood, and at last, in the depth of the Klambach, the lifeless body, the head downward, with gaping wounds have the husk." on the forehead, the face covered with blood, the dress deranged, and the legs crushed. The men returnelbow. ed to the carriage and communicatfore Kars, bearing to-day's date de- ed at first 100 and then 200 florins glass."

HAYES.

that he and Anderson are Indicted for Perjury Washington, July 4.—Tuesday's interrupted by a letter from J. Maworrying the old man a little the the house?" CONSTANTINOPLE, July 4 .- An ex- indicments will be nollied. Judge

"Squire Simpkins on the Glorious Greece. Mehemet Ali Pasha was derson that the feeling against them There was really music in Tom's appointed to the command of the is very indictive. Independent of voice and the wife set about the army on the Thessalian frontier. the particular occurrence for which work with a strange flutter at her Constantinople is quiet, the popu- these men are indicted, it is not un- heart. lace being apparently unmoved by natural for Hayes and his Cabinet "Tom drank two cups of the the news of the passage of the Dan- to seek to forget this unwelcome in- strong fragrant coffee, and then went > in the fraud in Louisiana will escape where he found Mr. Scott in the ofunpunished, but none of them feel fice. sure about it. One wholesome truth was said at the Cabinet: There was trade over again." no way by which the General Gov- "Eh, Tom! what do you mean?" ernment could interfere in the ad-

ONLY A HUSK.

Tom Darcy, yet a young man, had grown to be a very hard one. At heart he might have been all right, if his head and his will had been whole machine was going to the bad very fast, though there were times when the heart felt something of its old truthful yearnings. Tom had lost his place as foreman in the great machine shop, and what money he now earned came from old jobs of tinkering which he was able to do, here and there, at private houses; for Tom was a genius as well as a mechanic, and when his head was or clean a watch, as well as he could set up and regulate a steam engine -and this latter he could do better than any other man employed by the Scott Falls Manufacturing Com-

One day Tom had a job to mend a broken mowing machine and reaper for which he received five dollars; and on the following morning he started out to his old haunt -the village tayern. He knew that his wife sadly needed the money, and that his two little children were absolutely suffering for whant of clothing, and that morning he had a debate with the better part of himself; but the better part had become very weak and shaky, and the demon appetite carried the day.

So away to the tavern Tom went, where, for two or three hours, he felt the exhilerating effects of the alcoholic draught, and fancied himself happy, as he could sing and laugh; but, as usual, stupefaction set in and the man died out. He drank while he could stand, and then lay down in a corner where his com-

It was late at night, almost midnight, when the landlord's wife

"Peter," said she, not in a pleasing mood, "why don't you send that miserable Tom Darcy home? He's been hanging around here long Tom's stupefaction was not sound sleep. The dead coma had left his brain, and the calling of his name had stung his senses to keen attention. He had an insane love for rum, but did not love the landlord In other years Peter Tindar and himself had loved and wooed the sweet maiden-Ellen Gloss-and he won her, leaving Peter to take up with the vinegary spinster who had brought him the tavern, and he knew that lately the tapster had man who had once discarded him. "Why don't you send him home?"

demanded Mrs. Tindar, with an im-"Hush, Betsy. He's got money Let him be, and he'll be sure to spend it before he goes home. I'll have the kernel of the nut, and his wife may With a sniff and snap Betsy turned away, and shortly afterward Tom Darcy lifted himself on his

"Ah, Tom, you are awake?" " Yes." "Then rouse up and have a warm "No, Peter, I won't drink any more to-night."

"It wont hurt you, Tom-only a "I know it wont!" said Tom. der the plea that the maid had been buttoning up his coat by the only the stars, and then he looked down upon the earth. heel in the gravel, "Peter Tindar is oldcaboose." One said it was a constitution, and the declaration of wortless husk-a husk more than worthless! and I am helping to do the name of his dog. But no one leaders. Let the memories which it. I am robbing my wife of joy, knew. robbing my children of honor and comfort, robbing myself of love and life-just that Peter Tindar may We'll see !"

It was a revelation to the man. The tavern-keeper's brief speech, family, but they must be without the founders and saviours of our beloved meant not for his ears, had come pail of society. upon his senses as fell the voice of the Risen One upon Saul of Tarsus. man glories in her hair; Butter "We'll see!" he exclaimed, set-Guards have reached Erzeroum from nent suggestion to make at this sin- ting his foot firmly upon the ground; Trebizond. A correspondent at gular appeal, which the singular title and then he wended his way home.

> On the following morning he said to his wife: "Ellen, have you any coffee in

"Yes, Tom." She did not tell Jeremiah Coe is an Indiana law-yer. All his clients go to Jericho. Palace Monday, the Sultan presid- lie sentiment of the South will dis-her. She was glad to hear him ask cident, and to comfort themselves out with a resolute step, and walked with assurances that all the partners straight to the great manufactory,

"Mr. Scott, I want to learn my

"I mean that it is Tom Darcy, Nothing, sir, but the necessity of "Work! Aye, Tom, and bless that he must conciliate an outraged

Tom's hands were weak and unsteady, but his brain was clear, and under his skillful supervision the pledged to oppose the grant of subengine was set up and tested; but it was not perfect. There were mis- Yet no man who to-day knows anytakes he had to correct, and it was thing of the currents and influences late in the evening when the work was complete.

"How is is now, Tom?" asked Mr. Scott, as he came into the testing posed if not favored by this adminhouse and found the workmen ready istration, which aims to take from to depart. "She is all right, sir. You may give your warrant without fear." "God bless you, Tom! You don't know how like sweet music the old need, and from which private capivoice sounds. Will you take your talists would shrink with contempt. place again?"

"Wait till Monday morning, sir. If you will offer it to me then, I will

At the little cottage, Ellen Darcy's fluttering heart was sinking. to again corrupt the morals and That morning after Tom had gone, blast the prosperity of the whole she found a two-dollar bill in the coffee cup. She knew that he left it for her. She had been out and bought tea and sugar and flour and butter, a bit of tender steak, and all the principles upon which our govday long a ray of light had been dancing and skimmering before her -a ray of blessed light of other laws of moral cause and effect, as days. With prayer and hope she true and certain as any physical had set out the tea-table, and wait- laws. No political leader, no polited, but the sun went down and no ical party, can forfeit honor or de-Tom came. Eight o'clock-and alglimmer after all? Hark! the old step! quick, strong. eager for home. Yes, it was Tom, with the old grime upon his hands, and the odor of oil upon his gar-

"I have kept you waiting, Nel-"I didn't mean to, but the work hung on."

the old shop!" And she threw her arms around his neck and covered his face with "Nellie, darling, wait a little and

"Oh, Tom, I've got him nowbless him! bless him! My own Tom! my husband, my darling!

And then Tom Darcy realized the full power and blessedness of wo-It was a banquet of the gods was that supper-of the household gods all restored-with the bright angels their wings over the board. On the following Monday mornng Tom Darcy assumed his place at the head of the great machine shop, and those who thoroughly knew him had no fear of his going back into the slough of joylessness A few days later Tom met Peter Tindar on the street. "Eh, Tom, old boy, what's up?" "I am up-right side up."

"Yes, I see. But I hope you haven't forsaken us Tom?" " I have forsaken only the evil you have in store, Peter. The fact is, I

"Ah, you heard what I said to my were given for the President. wife that night?" "Yes, Peter; and I shall be grateful to you for it as long as I live. and they were loudly given. Mr. My remembrance of you will always Wait, president of the convention, and brightness." "Ezeroum in these here Kars?" inquired a feeble old Turk, as he stood, carpet-bag in hand, at the entrance of a Constantinople street car. "O, you old opium pill go new struggle for the honor and swallow yourself," said the conductor. "Say old turkey gobbler, go day spoken the sentiments of none and have your comb colored," shout- but myself, be it so. Silence is for ed the driver. The old Turk there- me cowardice. If, as I believe the upon made a three-legged stool of heart of the nation is true to the old himself and yookah and only made cause, to the principles of free gov-"Aye," he muttered, grinding his one remark, "Gotodevilskiwithdam- ernment, to the principles of the prayer, others an oath, and one man independence then, let it be heard. gave it as his opinion that it was Let it speak by the voices of our

> It is not charity to beg everywhere, for charity should beg in at Swill is the name of a Chicago Man glories in his strength; woglories in both. "Where, oh where are the He-

Next to a loving heart, heaven's struck at the heart of the republic, best gift to the man is a wash cloth shall find your childrens' lips dumb with butterflies on the corners. Even the fairest rose has its thorn;

even the jolliest picnic party has its Chamberlain Rants.

Boston, July 9.—Ex Governor Chamberlain's speech, after a long history of the Louisiana and South Carolina cases, and general denunciation of the President's policy, he attacks his civil service policy, and proceeds: Look next at the relations of this Administration to the present financial issues. President Hayes has heretofore entitled himself to the confidence of honest men by his course on this question. contemplate an alliance with the silver conspiracy, a conspiracy which dard of value, and as a currency is is wretched "Southern policy." now to the demand for the "spoils," and now to the demand for "cheap" money. Again, the Republican party, by all its recent platforms, is sidies to any private corporations. which are gathering at Washington, is ignorant of the fact that a vast scheme is steadily maturing, unopour public domain and from our public treasury, untold subsidies to build a Southern Pacific railway, a railway for which there is no present public In the train of this gigantic effort at public robbery will cause the revival of the defunct Northern Pacific, the building of levees on the Mississippi, and kindred schemes, sufficient country. And all this is the price which must be paid for the privilege of overthrowing two lawful State governments, and trampling upon ernments and institutions rest the rule of the majority. Sir. there are sert principles at one point, and most nine. Oh, was it but a false maintain them at others. Integrity is indivisible. You cannot be dishonest on one subject and honest on others. The President's Southern policy, conceived in its own mind, a shock and offense to his party, reckless of justice and constitutional duty, if unopposed, will more and more weaken the moral bands which have bitterly, in spite of its failings, secured to the Republican party the confidence of a majority of the most intelligent and patriotic Americans for more than twenty years. But, fellow-citizens, this gathering is not for me alone. Others, whose titles to your confidence and attention are older and better which I have discussed still stretches on before me, but I must close. We are summoned to the duty of exposing and denouncing a great crime, a crime more wanton and unpardonable than the crime against Kansas, which aroused the sleeping conscience of the North, and gave its earliest victories to the Republi can party. That crime was commitof peace and love and joy spreading ted by a president, at the bidding of the party which elected him. This crime has been committed in defiance of the principles and pledges of the Republican party, and in defiance of the personal declarations and obligations of the President,

[SECOND DISPHTCH.] Boston, July 9 .- When Governor Chamberlain had concluded his speech Rev. Mr. Stoddard, of Fair Haven, Mass., arose and said that he desired, with all due respect to Gov. Chamberlain, to say that he believed the sentiments expressed concluded my wife and little ones in the address did not represent the had fed on husks long enough, and if feeling of New England. He then there was a kernel left in my heart, called for all those who endorsed or in my manhood, they should have the policy of President Hayes to signify it, and three hearty cheers

Somebody then called for three cheers for Governor Chamberlain be relieved by that tinge of warmth then arose and stated that it should be understood that every speaker was personally responsible for what he said. As for himself he had abiding confidence in the integrity of President Hayes, and confidence in his policy. These principles are worthy to enlist our people in this peace of our country. If I have tohaunt this day be our inspiration. Let us walk again with Adams and Hancock and Jefferson, of our early revolution, with Lincoln and Stanton and Sumner of our later revolution. May the shades of the great country be with us in this struggle, and speak to us, again, your great lessons of patriotism, of courage, of self-sacrifice.

The marble and the bronze in which we have preserved your hubrew children?" We don't know, man forms will crumble and corrode, but they are not at the Grand Union but let your unconquerable spirits never behold the day when a blow, or their hearts dismayed.

Some wretch has the audacity to "What would you do, madam, if ing, to consider measures necessary approve of this extreme step, but he you were a gentleman?" "Sir. in consequence of the passage of the what would you do if you were Danube, and to prepare for possible Southern States have suffered so "I wish you would make me a cup,"

The music of the future—sixty men who have been killed by millinery bills.